

Carolyn Strauss

Introduction

Defying society's narrow, idealized perception of beauty, Carolyn Strauss not only enjoyed a highly successful 20-year career as a fashion model with the Ford Modeling Agency in New York City, she parlayed that success into The Carolyn Strauss Collection, a multimillion dollar apparel company that is regularly featured on the Home Shopping Network.

Her face and voice are familiar to millions of Americans, having appeared on HSN many times, as well as CNN, Entertainment Tonight, Maury, and Sally Jesse Raphael, Good Afternoon Colorado and others. She also hosted her own radio show, The Perfect Image with Carolyn Strauss.

In addition to being the CEO and spokesperson for her company, Carolyn is also an internationally recognized fashion consultant and commentator, certified personal trainer, creator of The Perfect Image Body Sculpting Workout Video and author of the book Specialty Modeling, and the soon to be released "A Healthier You" with Depack Chopra and Billy Blanks.

Carolyn brings with her messages of empowerment, self-acceptance, and personal clarity, because, after all, It's Your Movie.

Please welcome Carolyn Strauss.
